FonTel L2USB

PHONE CALL RECORDER

✔ Records calls performed on analogue lines

✔ Identifies caller number (CLIP)

FonTel L2USB phone call recorder is a device designed to record the contents of the phone calls performed on analogue phone lines. The recorded content is saved to a PC connected to the recorder through a USB port.

Device features

- independent call recording on 2 analogue phone lines (PSTN/POTS), possible extension with more devices
- identification of the caller number (CLIP)
- connection to a PC through a USB port only
- connection to the phone line parallel to the phone
- no interference with the existing telephone network
- no need of any power supply
- CE marking

Software features

- automatic phone call recording
- identification of incoming, outgoing and unanswered calls
- call content stored in separate compressed files – approximately 8 MB consumption per one hour talk
- phone tapping of the recorded calls
- notes assigned to the recorded calls
- independent playback of the calls recorded
- call graphical representation
- automatic control of available space – automatic removal of the oldest recordings
- generation of archive copies, archive copies storage on CDs/DVDs, browsing through the archive copies
- calls archive remote access through a web browser
- remote call listening
- phone book embedded
- caller number, caller ID, localization, country and carrier data provided
- searching, filtering and printing of the list of calls, export of the list of calls to CSV format
- connection statistics and summaries
- access to selected software functions protected with a password from unauthorized use
- cooperation with other systems by providing API for developers
- cooperation with all models of FonTel recorders

Requirements

- Windows 2000 / XP / Vista / Server / 7 operating system
- USB 1.1 or 2.0 port available

Technical specification

- phone connectors: 2 x RJ11 sockets
- connection to PC: USB-B port
- standard CLIP: FSK, DTMF
- dimensions: 26 x 95 x 130 mm (height x width x depth)

Contents of the package

- FonTel L2USB phone call recorder
- 2m phone cable, 2 x RJ11 (2 pieces) and USB A-B 2m cable
- user's manual
- software and drivers CD