

FonTel L4NET

PHONE CALL RECORDER

- ✓ Records calls performed on 4 analogue lines
- ✓ Identifies caller number (CLIP)
- ✓ Includes own HDD
- ✓ works without PC

FonTel L4NET phone call recorder is an independent device designed to record the contents of the phone calls performed on 4 analogue phone lines. Calls and database with other information are record at build in HDD. Listening of the calls is possible with using included software via network.

Device features

- independent call recording on 4 analogue phone lines (PSTN/POTS), possible extension with more devices
- identification of the caller number (CLIP)
- including HDD for storing a few thousand hours of calls and data
- identification of incoming, outgoing or unanswered calls.
- automatic answering
- automatic voice announcement
- stand alone device – no need to use PC all the time
- connection to the phone line parallel to the phone
- no interference with the existing telephone network
- cooperation with other systems by providing API for developers

Software features

- possibility of VoIP and Skype calls recording
- phone tapping of the recorded calls
- notes assigned to the recorded calls
- independent playback of the calls recorded
- call graphical representation
- automatic control of available space – automatic removal of the oldest recordings
- generation of archive copies, archive copies storage on CDs/DVDs, browsing through the archive copies
- access via internet
- remote call listening
- phone book embedded
- caller number, caller ID, localization, country and carrier data provided
- searching, filtering and printing of the list of calls, export of the list of calls to CSV format
- connection statistics and summaries
- access to selected software functions protected with a password from unauthorized use
- cooperation with other systems by providing API for developers
- cooperation with all models of FonTel recorders

Technical specification

- phone connectors: 4 x RJ11 sockets
- connection to ETH: RJ45 socket
- standard CLIP: FSK, DTMF
- dimensions: 46 x 107 x 146 mm (height x width x depth)

Requirements

- operating system: Windows 2000 / XP / Vista / Server / 7
- sound card
- network card

Contents of the package

- phone call recorder FonTel L4NET
- power supply 230V/7.5V
- 2m phone cable, 2 x RJ11 (4 pieces)
- Ethernet cable, 2 x RJ45
- user manual
- software and drivers CD